

A diagram illustrating the layout of a postcard. It features a large light blue rectangular area on the left side, representing the message area. On the right side, there are two smaller light blue rectangular areas. The top one is a square labeled "Postage Area". Below it is a larger rectangle labeled "Address Area".

Postage Area

Address Area

This space required for USPS postcard regulations: 5/8" needed to apply barcode for automatic mailing